

Challenge 1: Furry Fiend Foiled

Yesterday afternoon, the traditional Easter Egg Hunt in Geddington was nearly ruined, by a fur-clad impostor. At least 50 eggs were taken, before the long-eared fiend was espied by a sharp-eyed pupil from Geddington Primary School. The headteacher from the school quickly unmasked the burgling bunny and made him stand outside her office, until police arrived. An anonymous benefactor generously replaced the missing eggs, in time for the start of the event.

What is the Easter Egg Hunt? Who is it for? When does it happen? Where does it happen?

What did the fake bunny do? (don't forget to include his real name)

How was the bunny caught?

Quote from pupil

What did the headteacher do?

Quote from headteacher

What did the anonymous benefactor do?

How did it all turn out in the end?

Who?

What?

When?

Where?

Why?

How is the Easter Bunny described? Add some more of your own.
Easter Bunny

Pupil

Headteacher

Challenge 2: Furry Fiend Foiled

Yesterday afternoon, the traditional Easter Egg Hunt in Geddington was nearly ruined, by a fur-clad impostor. At least 50 eggs were taken, before the long-eared fiend was espied by a sharp-eyed pupil from Geddington Primary School.

The headteacher from the school quickly unmasked the burgling bunny and made him stand outside her office, until police arrived.

An anonymous benefactor generously replaced the missing eggs, in time for the start of the event.