

Spring Two Term Year 6

English

Newspaper articles: this term, we will learn how to write an engaging and exciting newspaper report, with our event being the sinking of the Titanic. We will recap on how to include quotes effectively and will use a variety of different sentence structures.

We are reading...

The Call of the Wild by Jack London

World Book Day on 7th March.

Author study: Shaun Tan

Maths

We are continuing with the White Rose Maths scheme and will cover the following topics:

- Calculating with decimals
- The relationship between fractions, decimals and percentages
- Statistics

Ongoing fluency and reasoning.

Science

Living things and their habitats

- The kingdoms of life
- Classifying different species
- The work of Linnaeus

Scientific enquiry skills:

- Grouping and sorting
- Observing
- Give simple explanations
- Make and record measurements.

Science Week: 11th – 15th March

We will be carrying out a special investigation this week.

Art, D&T

Drawing: technical drawing inspired by the work of Leonardo Da Vinci.

Baking: making fairtrade cookies.

Topic

Theme: Great Explorers

- The climate and vegetation of the North Pole
- The climate and vegetation of the South Pole
- The effects of climate change
- The historical significance of the great polar explorers.

Enquiry Based Skills:

Asking questions, human and physical geography, investigating different climatic and regional variations, using maps and atlases.

French

Conversational French with Miss Jackson

Music

Dona Nobis Pacem: a focus on texture in music

RE

Learning about the Christian festival of Easter

PSHCE

Jigsaw: Healthy Me

Computing

Ongoing internet safety

iApp 1: understanding how apps are developed and programmed to complete various functions and roles in our modern world.

PE

Golf

Basketball