

Fill the boxes below with your own research about Viking longships! Visit the local library to find books about the Vikings, or use your own internet research.

*How long were they? What were they made from? How many people could fit on a longship?
Which bodies of water were they designed to travel through— lakes, rivers, seas?*

